

Ph.D. in African Studies

Admission to the Ph.D. Course is done two times in one academic year of the University as per University rule. Generally, only those who have successfully completed the M.Phil. Programme in African Studies or any social science subject can be eligible for admission in Ph.D. Course.